COMRADES FIGHTING SAVAGES ENJOY A REVIEW OF PHILIPPINE WARFARE

BOTH ARE WOUNDED PREVENTING A BLOODY MASSACRE

Dinner Given in Pomona Recalls Exciting Days of Insurrection in Islands. On Filipino Independence Commission.

Gen. Ralph W. Jones, of the Philippine constabulary, Manila, accompanied by his wife and daughter Florence Jones, are visiting with Colonel and Mrs. Wallace C. Taylor, Twentieth and Mountain avenue, Upland, where the colonel and his brother, H. B. Jones, have quite an extensive lemon and orange grove. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Cadet Taylor entertained at dinner at their residence on Pearl street, Pomona, having as guests General Jones and family, Colonel and Mrs. W. C. Taylor and their little sons, Wallace Cadet, Jr., and Robert Bullard. The former was born in Manila and the latter in Pomona, and was named in honor of Lieut-Gen. Robert L. Bullard, who made such a fine record in France, and under whom Colonel Taylor served in the Thirty-ninth United States Regiment as a captain in the Philippines campaign. Miss Julia C. Baldwin, of Chicago, was also a guest. Incidentally Monday was the Colonel's birthday, and is the second time he has been able to celebrate it with his parents in more than twenty years. General Jones accompanied the party of distinguished Filipino statesmen who recently came over and went to Washington to present their case to President Wilson.

In 1906 Col. W. C. Taylor had command of the Third Constabulary district, with headquarters at Iloilo, Cebu, Samar, at that time one of the worst infested islands by the pulahanes, called for joint action of the United States troops and the constabulary. On March 24 Captain Jones was up against one of the most difficult situations imaginable. It has gone down in history as the famous fight at Magtong.

These two battle-scarred veterans have given about twenty years of the best part of their lives to the military service in the Philippines, and most of it was real field service, in the wilds of the islands, with no roads, where the true metal of manhood is sure to come to the surface with a dangerous foe, armed with bolos and who knew how to wield them at close quarters. Col. Taylor was wounded in the arm while leading a charge over insurmountable breastworks in northern Luzon, at that time a captain in the First Nebraska Regiment. Later, in the island of Samar, he was seriously wounded, receiving a 45 bullet thru the jaw and neck. He was carried 45 miles from the mountains on a stretcher to the coast, where a boat had been ordered to transport him to the hospital, 150 miles away. So, after such long and arduous service, these two "old vets" are having a real reunion this week. And it is hoped that when General Jones completes his service over there he will make this part of Southern California his future home.

Colonel Taylor's official report of Captain Jones' fight at Magtong says:

"After several weeks of negotiations by Governor Curry, during which time the camp of the pulahanes was visited by him and the pulahane officers visited the village and constabulary camp at Magtong, an understanding was arrived at by which the pulahanes were to surrender. March 21 was the day set for the presentation.

"Governor Curry, Judge Lobinger, Superintendent of Schools Hoover, Mr. Scott, Mr. Campbell and Captain Jones were directly in the rear of the pulahane line, as were also the pulahane chiefs. The constabulary, numbering 50 men, with Lieutenant Bowers and Sub-inspector Puno, were in the center.

"As the pulahanes marched up, Captain Jones, watching them closely, observed something in their manner which made him suspicious and he leaped his way to the center. As he reached it he heard the signal given to attack given by Agullar.

"The pulahanes fired a volley, and with drawn bolos and spears rushed forward, closing in on the center. The rush was so unexpected and made with such impetuosity that the constabulary had scarcely time to fire one volley. The fight was hand to hand. Some of the constabulary were swept aside by the overwhelming force against them. Some fourteen became separated from the command.

"Captain Jones, Lieutenant Bowers and Sub-inspector Puno stood their ground and by their superb courage and example held their force together and beat off the enemy.

"After the first rush the fighting continued fiercely, and when the

C. E. HARWOOD GIVES COLLEGE $50,000.00

MONEY WILL BE USED IN BUILDING FOR WOMEN STUDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Davenport of Los Angeles Donate Block of Land Adjoining College, Completing Fifteen-Acre Tract.

Gifts of a valuable tract of land and of a large amount of money to Pomona college were announced yesterday. Charles E. Harwood of Upland, vice-president of the Mexican Petroleum Oil company, has given $50,000 to be used toward the erection of a woman's residence hall in memory of his late wife, Mrs. Katherine Harwood, who died about a year ago. Pomona college has benefited heretofore through the generosity of Mr. Harwood, who is a corporate member of the American college, and is deeply interested in educational institutions, to which he has been a liberal giver.

Simultaneously with this gift comes that of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Davenport of Los Angeles of a block of valuable land immediately adjoining the present college campus, and which completes a fifteen-acre tract recently acquired by the board of trustees, and opens the way for work on a long-cherished plan of a co-ed campus, whereon the first unit of a group of women's residence halls will be begun this summer.

The present woman's dormitory is the oldest building at Pomona—a wooden structure of the style of the early 80's and is entirely out of harmony with the other college buildings and is inadequate.

The plan of a special campus for women, including four residence halls and the necessary equipment, is only one aspect of a detailed plan for a great expansion of Pomona college. The million-dollar campaign instituted by President Blaisdell a few years ago was brought to such a successful issue that another campaign for $500,000 is now well on the way to fulfillment.

While Pomona college was originally Congregational in organization, it long ago made itself the servant of a wider fellowship. The board of trustees is absolutely free from ecclesiastical control and represents different communions. While the institution is truly Christian, it is entirely nonsectarian. Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, D. D., bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles, is vice-president of the board of trustees. George W. Marston of San Diego is president. Charles E. Walker of Los Angeles is treasurer and Dr. Charles B. Sumner of Claremont is secretary. Other members of the board include Dr. James A. Blaisdell, president of the college, Charles E. Harwood of Upland, Seeley W. Mudd and E. P. Clark of Los Angeles, Frederick W. Lyman, Edwin F. Hahn, Fred M. Wilcox and W. H. R. Weldon of Pasadena, Arthur M. Dole and Rev. William O. Wark of Pomona, Llewellyn Bixby and Francis C. Yeomans of Long Beach and Dr. William Horace Day of Bridgeport, Conn.

DEATH WINS IN RACE TO BEDSIDE OF SICK SON

Mrs. John Welland of West Ninth street lost a race with death Tuesday, when she arrived at the bedside of her son, Walter E. Welland, in Tucson, Ariz., a few hours after his passing.

Walter E. Welland, who was a surveyor in the United States Bureau of Mines, had been stationed at Tucson for nearly two years. When word came about ten days ago that the young man was suffering with typhoid fever, a sister hastened to be with him and when word came that he had taken a serious turn for the worse, Mrs. Welland left hastily but failed to reach his side before the end.

The remains arrived here today from the southern city and the funeral services will be held from St. George's Catholic church, Ontario, at 8:30 Friday morning.

last of the pulahanes disappeared there remained but seven enlisted men of the constabulary able to fight. Seven more were lying about more or less wounded and twenty-two were dead. Captain Jones received a bad spear thrust in the chest early in the fight, but fought on regardless. Lieutenant Bowers received a gunshot wound through the left arm, which, however, did not put him out of the fight. Thirty-five dead pulahanes were found on the field and eight more later.

"The little band, determined to make good the victory, immediately entrenched and began the work of burying the dead and caring for the wounded. Reinforcements arrived next day."

Later in his report Colonel Taylor says: "The alertness of Captain Jones in observing the first sign of treachery by the pulahanes and his subsequent brave stand is, in my opinion, the only reason why the attack did not result in a massacre of the entire force of constabulary and the unarmed Americans as well. It is recommended that he be awarded a medal for valor and advanced ten times in his grade."

CHAFFEY SECOND IN BASE BALL LEAGUE

COMING CONCERT PROMISES TO BE WELL ATTENDED AFFAIR

ChaFFEY Cadets Will Take Part in Peace Pageant at Urbana Springs Today. Reception a Great Success.

Hurrah for ChaFFEY! We came in second in the league baseball games and that wasn't so bad, was it? The last game was with Redlands and the score piled up for ChaFFEY was seven, and for Redlands two. The ChaFFEY "sphere slingers" did some dandy work and Mertz could not complain of the loyal support of his team.

About that concert June second at ChaFFEY. The tickets are nearly gone and if you miss this opportunity to hear the remarkable soprano, Miss Verna Jacques, you will surely have missed one of the greatest musical evenings ever given at ChaFFEY. Did you know that, in any standard musical book, the range of a soprano voice is stated as reaching f above high c? Did you know that Galli-Curci, and other prima donnas, advertised the fact they could reach e and f and did you know that the singer to appear Monday night, Miss Jacques, reaches with perfect ease and exquisite clearness the note g above high c? And besides a remarkable range, the young lady possesses a wonderfully pleasing tone in her lower range which has developed unusually with the last few months.

Besides the soloist, there is the violinist, Mr. Walberg, who is noted for his excellent work, not only as a violin soloist, but as a recognized director. And the glee club we all have heard and intend hearing again in their several new numbers. Ted Mertz and Hutton Miller represented ChaFFEY at a tennis tournament in Santa Monica last week, and Ted came back shining star. There were many complimentary remarks on the swift work of this young boy who is so expert with the racket.

Today, at Urbana Springs, is to be held a military pageant with competitive drill of high school cadets. ChaFFEY closed at noon today in order to appear at the field "en masse." And win the cup. You see, ChaFFEY is pretty confident that she will get the cup for the sturdy cadets do some perfect drilling.

The patriotic assembly held last Friday was of especial interest because the ChaFFEY students were the hosts of the Ontario old soldiers and wives of the Grand Army of the Republic and Women's Relief Corps. The glee club sang a few patriotic songs and the ChaFFEY quintette under the splendid direction of Professor Walberg, surprised the students with their excellent work. This quintette is "just coming into fame, having played but a few times in public, but the reputation of the musical five is assured by this first appearance. Mr. Earle Blakeslee gave a short address of welcome to the old patriots and then Mr. Earl Coke gave the declaration which he gave later at Claremont in a declaration contest.

After the meeting a short but very peppy rally was held for the Redlands game.

The annual junior-senior reception given last Friday evening at ChaFFEY was one of the biggest affairs of the school year and it was pronounced by all to be a grand success. Such receptions usually are grand successes, but to the juniors who planned the entertainment for the "nineteen-nineteen" seniors unusual praise is due. The guests, including not only seniors but Junior College students and faculty members with their wives, were in the library by a reception committee from the junior class. Later in the evening a musical program and short skit was given in the auditorium, and after this came the promenade to the "gym" where delightful refreshments of ice cream and French pastry were served by girls of the sophomore class. The rooms were very beautifully decorated with large hanging baskets filled with many colored flowers, the reception room being especially artistic.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS TO GATHER IN YOSEMITE VALLEY AUGUST 18

Announcement of the convention of school superintendents of the state has been sent out and the date is set for August 18. The meeting will be held in Yosemite, and this year, contrary to past custom the district superintendents will be included in those expected to present. This is the first convention held during the past three years and has been called by State Superintendent Will C. Wood. The county, city and district superintendents will meet to take up educational questions of vital interest. From San Bernardino county there will be eight representatives.

EUGLID AVENUE WILL BECOME UPLAND'S BEAUTY SPOT IN THE NEAR FUTURE

CITY COUNCIL ACTS UPON SUGGESTION OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Proceedings Will Be Under the Vrooman Act. Special Committee Investigates and Reports Before Action Taken.

Euclid avenue within the city of Upland is to become the beauty spot of the city within a short time, for at the meeting of the members of the chamber of commerce held last Thursday evening, it was recommended to the city council that the improvement of Euclid avenue under Vrooman Act proceedings be put in motion.

This action was taken by the chamber after a committee consisting of G. A. Hapson, E. C. Harwood and A. B. Whitney had canvassed the residence property owners as to their opinion in the matter and found that the vast majority were in favor of the improvement.

Contractor Cline offered to take the job for the work as he understood it on the basis of $6000 per block. At this rate the assessment would probably be as follows: for third ten acres from Euclid avenue on east side $180, second ten from Euclid on both sides of avenue, $470, and for the first ten both sides avenue, $970.

The plans and specifications suggested call for curbing on both sides of central parking and four inch concrete pavement with rock gutter from the street north to Twenty-fourth street on the east side of the avenue and first class repair of the west side of Euclid avenue. The section from a street to Tenth street on the east side to be smoothed up and not included in the improvement, as it already has a stone base.

At the meeting of the city council Monday night the council followed out the recommendations of the chamber of commerce and started the work by ordering the establishment of grades.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT IN FINAL CONCERT

Next Monday evening at the high school auditorium the music department of the high school will present a great program. Miss Verna Jacques, the brilliant soprano, being the star of the evening. Those assisting on the program are Harold E. Walberg, concert violinist, and the popular Girls' Glee club.

Patti, Galli-Curci, Toscanini are famed not alone for the quality of their voices, for many voices have that, but even more for their unusual range. Facts of record show that e and f above high c were their accepted compass. With this in mind, it is a remarkable fact that Verna Jacques at this time sings to the g above these notes. And as the program June 2 will show, her voice has taken on an added quality of mellowness in the recent months, which enhances greatly the charm and variety of her singing.

Mr. Walberg, violinist, has not been heard here before. His playing is brilliant and rich in tone, with a personal touch that reaches the audience at once. This will be his only appearance this season. The ChaFFEY Girls' Glee have an unusual array of voices. With sopranos of bell-like clarity, they add altos of almost baritone quality, reaching as they do the c below middle c. Such vocal resources, with their superior ensemble work, have earned them their deserved reputation. It is their final appearance in concert.

Miss Verna Jacques, Soprano

YOUNGSTERS GIVE EXCELLENT EVENING

ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF WORK HELD AT SAME TIME OF ENTERTAINMENT

School Takes in Some $100 to Be Used in Purchasing Equipment for Play Grounds. Work Shows Splendid Training.

One of the most delightful entertainments of the Upland grammar school was staged last Friday night by the pupils, and showed the care expended by the teachers to make it the great success it was. Besides the program, the annual exhibit was also given of the handwork, sewing, art and manual training.

The first number on the program was by the new orchestra of the school and was much appreciated. A dumbbell drill by the seventh grade girls, a song by the Mexican pupils of Miss Carrey's school, and a costume song by the eighth grade, "Wait Till the Cows Come Home," were all heartily applauded. The fairy play was beautiful with Marguerite Moremen as queen of the fairies and Donna Whitehead as the "Mortal" looking for the fairies. The stage was arranged as a woodland scene, making a pretty background for the fairies. From the queen of the butterflies, Marjorie Sulley, to the little kindergarten "worms" who turned into butterflies, and thru the drills and plays from all the grades, the interest and applause was hearty. Great credit should be given Miss McClelland for the arrangement of the play and to Miss Mitchell as director.

A second fairy play was given by the pupils of the 18th street school which was delightful, the costumes being especially beautiful.

During the evening the seventh grade girls sold a quilt of their own making, for $8. The candy sold cleared the Junior Red Cross $15. Over $100 was taken in and is to go towards playground apparatus for next year. Altogether a most delightful and entertaining evening was spent by the crowded house.

SECOND OPEN MEETING OF C. OF C. BIG SUCCESS

Second open meeting of the chamber of commerce was held at the club rooms last Thursday night and from every point of view it was a success.

Although E. C. Mehl, chairman on arrangements for the evening, was disappointed in getting the speaker planned on, Secretary Vignins of the Chamber of Commerce sent out Captain Frank Bristol of the American Red Cross, who went to France, then to Berlin, during the war. Captain Bristol's work was to keep the boys happy and the men of the chamber of commerce enjoyed a most interesting hour, as Captain Bristol related his experiences on board ship and overseas in a decidedly entertaining manner, for he not only could talk, but he could sing and his poetical genius as well as his parody on "Smiles, Smiles," proved a delight to the men who voted him a hearty thanks, God bless you, and come again.

Smokes and punch and wafers were served by the committee. The main subject of the evening's discussion was the improvement of Euclid avenue and the report of the committee, an account of which will be found in another column.

IMPORTANT THAT YOU HAND IN SOLDIER'S NAME

You do want your son's name to go down in the California War History that is being prepared, do you not? Also you'd like to know that there was a local history of that same boy, whether he is father, son, or husband, wouldn't you? Mr. R. O. Price is county chairman and is quite anxious to get his lists completed, and at the library, where there have been blanks for months past, the librarian has been trying to get the town record completed. The town was fairly well covered by the Mothers' Union some time since but the following list of names are the only ones turned in. If a record has been sent directly to the county chairman, or to Sacramento, will the parents, wife, sister, or sweetheart, see that a record has been sent to the library as well?

ONTARIO HOST WHEN WEST END STAGES WELCOME HOME TO SOLDIER LADS

JUNE TWELFTH IS DAY OF JUBILATION FOR THIS END OF COUNTY

Auto and Motorcycle Races to Be Great Feature of Day With Handsome Prizes to Winners. Bands and Dances Entertain.

Ontario is to be host to the West End folk Thursday, June 12, for on that day the welcome home to the soldier boys of the West End of San Bernardino county is to be staged in one glorious all-day and all-night program of fun.

In the morning there will be the parade of returned soldiers, Red Cross, and other war organizations, while overhead the flying circus from Rockwell Field will stage a varied assortment of stunts.

In the afternoon Euclid avenue from A street north to Eighth street will be turned into a race course while amateur automobile drivers contend for cash prizes. Motorcycle races will also be run.

At the open meeting of the chamber of commerce last Thursday evening Mayor Johnson brought up the idea of whether or not Upland should send its band to Ontario and it was the unanimous voice of the hundred or more men present that not only should the band spend the day there at the expense of the city, but that Upland as a whole should attend the big event. Stores of Ontario are to be closed during the day and the stores of Upland will also be closed that all may enjoy the big day and assist in welcoming home the soldier lads.

Upland war organizations are asked to prepare for the parade, each organization to march in the parade as a separate unit. Very few, if any, automobiles will be used in the parade, everybody being asked to walk. For those who do ride each organization will be asked to furnish its own machines and only those who are members of that organization will be expected to be in the machines.

In the evening the big events of the day are to be staged for not only will the Upland band provide one of its famous concerts, but a street dance when "m" and "w" and all the young folks are to join in shaking their feet in a welcome to the boys. A complimentary dance for service men is to be given by Every Girls club and altogether the welcome home to the boys will be one they'll remember for many a day.

All service men, whether they went from Upland or not, are asked to be at the Fire Hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock to complete arrangements for their section of the parade. The men with commissions will be asked to take charge.

BOY SCOUTS NOTICE

The Boy Scouts of Upland have been enjoying some very fine meetings the last few weeks. Dr. John Craig gave a talk one evening on First Aid. This has given the boys many new ideas of how to take care of themselves while at home as well as in the mountains. They have been reviewing the items spoken of in the address and hope to be able to take their test in First Aid soon. It is hoped that the doctor can spare another evening in giving a review and in telling some other things of interest.

Then came the splendid talk of Harold Moore on work in the army and experiences abroad. And last Monday Doncaster G. Humm gave a most interesting talk on swimming and rescue work as practiced and approved by the Red Cross. Mr. Humm is an instructor at large for the Red Cross and is giving what time he can this month to the Boy Scouts. He has spoken in about half of the patrols already. After he has been around all of them he is to meet them at ChaFFEY plunge and demonstrate what he has been teaching the boys.

The Scouts are planning for a field day at ChaFFEY on the afternoon of Saturday, June 7. The Scouts are to meet at ChaFFEY that day about 2:30 an. and spend the afternoon in games. About half past four they go to the plunge and Mr. Humm is to tell them there about swimming. Mr. Clapp will assist at that time, too. Full details of the program will appear in next week's paper. After the swim the boys meet their fathers on the lawn where a basket lunch will be partaken of together. Some medals are to be presented to Scouts who sold War Savings Stamps.

On Saturday of this week the younger Scouts are to have a big day in the hills. All wishing to go may do so. Bring lunches. The plan is to return by half past four. Start from the P. E. Junction at 8:20 in the morning. Bring ten cents for car fare and lunch enough for a hungry boy.

LEAGUE OF CHURCHES

THE aim behind the league of churches is no different from that which is bringing the world to see the need of an international league to enforce peace, or at any rate to end war. Internationally, civilization is at stake; another such debacle and the saving grace of centuries would disappear forever. Already man has been brutalized to a degree he cannot appreciate for the present. He could not help it. The bare reading of what was taking place on the battle fields had a debasing effect, which is evident in our everyday speech and bearing.

Religion, simultaneously with civilization, of which it is a chief portion, is passing through a solemn crisis. The war made men religious as they faced death, and much of the literature of the battle fields is clothed in a realization of divinity. But this applied to those at the door of death and liable to be summoned at any moment, and even then this feeling was not applicable to all the armies. A great many soldiers are returning from the fields of human slaughter questioning the reality of a religion that permitted such a world stain. Bolshevism and its associate revolutions are atheistical and antichristian. The American I. W. W. and German-imported socialism aim to overthrow the religious customs of the people. Rationalism, as it is termed, is in the ascendant. If the church is divided and engaged in internal dissension over nonessentials, the enemy cannot be held at bay.—Rocky Mountain News, Denver, Colo.

It is to be hoped that the best results of the bringing into close touch of the religious sects during the war will be permanent. It is inconceivable that after the opportunities the sects have had of working together toward a common end, suffering together for a common victory, and praying together there will be no radical effect in the way of permanent rapprochement.—Detroit Free Press.

I think there is no doubt whatever that a great religious revolution is taking place in our midst, the results of which will be as important and as momentous as the changes wrought by the French Revolution. Some people may doubt the accuracy of my assertion, but in my opinion it is a correct description of what is taking place. Ideas are the force that rules the world, whether new ideas or old ideas revived. Changes, radical and fundamental, are taking place in the thinking of men concerning religion, which mark an unquestionable advance toward brotherhood, justice, and righteousness. I am certain that Christianity will become in the future much more real and practical. It is practical Christianity translated into everyday life in all its phases which the soldiers at the front are asking for.

War has brought us into closer touch with the realities of life and death. In the future, instead of the emphasis being upon creed, ritual, church order and government, the emphasis of the religious life will have to be on behavior and conduct, upon the attitude of man to man, upon his attitude to the nation, and upon the attitude of one nation toward other nations. This translation of the spiritual force into the political life will mean not only a new state order but a new world order, and in its wider form it will eventuate in an international tribunal for the settlement of disputes amongst nations, such as is enshrined in the proposal for a league of nations.

In short, the changes are driving people to a recognition of the oneness of humanity—one God and one destiny for the whole human race. The revival is equally emphatic in France as in Britain. The conviction is deepening in men's minds that the ultimate victory in this war will come to the nation or nations that have the highest and truest morale and are lifted to a higher plane of living.—Doctor Clifford in News and Leader, London, England.

MORE SESSIONS OF CONGRESS

ANNOUNCEMENT is made in Washington, according to news dispatches from that city, that a definite movement will be launched, early in the present extraordinary session of Congress, looking to the enactment of a provision under which the National Legislature will be convened in regular session on March 5 of each year. The proposed act, already drafted, is sponsored by Clifton N. McArthur, one of the three members of the Lower House representing Oregon. Mr. McArthur, in announcing his determination to seek the early passage of his measure, advances what must, it would seem, be accepted as logical and convincing arguments in its behalf, arguments, however, which do not appear to be exhaustive. Much might be said, and no doubt will be said, in support of the plan when the measure reaches the committees to which it will be assigned.

The present Congress is the Sixty-Sixth since the Government was established, representing, with its completion, the passing of 132 years, and it is perhaps somewhat remarkable that never before in the history of the government has the necessity been so keenly felt for a provision compelling the automatic meeting of Congress oftener than is now provided for by the Constitution, namely, at least once in each year. Frequent extraordinary sessions have been held, of course, and some of these have been convened immediately after the closing of the so-called short sessions, which end, by expiration of the terms for which all members of the House and a part of the members of the Senate are chosen, on the 4th of March of the odd-numbered years. The demand for an extraordinary session this year, to begin as soon as possible after the close of the regular session in March last, was insistently expressed by many of the members of both houses, and by representatives of important industrial and commercial organizations throughout the country.

But no way had been provided for Congress to meet automatically at that time, or at any time prior to the first Monday in December next. It has never been argued, so far as is known, that the President, the only authority possessing the power to call Congress together in extraordinary session, did not realize, and realize fully, the great emergency existing, and the national need for immediate remedial and constructive legislation. But the President made it clear, shortly before the close of the regular session, that he regarded it as his greatest duty to continue his work at the Peace Conference in Paris, and that he did not wish Congress to be in session during his absence from the United States. So matters stood, with the demand for action apparently unheeded, until his decision was reached, recently, to permit the organization of Congress in his absence.

It is not argued that a similar emergency is likely soon to arise again. So the emergency just now passed, or passing, will probably not be presented as illustrating the chief reason for a change in the law. Reasons advanced for the change will, no doubt, be the increasing volume and importance of the business Congress is called upon to transact; increasing appropriations and increasing problems of taxation engrossing international and insular problems; and internal and industrial affairs of ever-increasing importance. These, it may well be argued, are sufficient to keep Congress in almost continuous session, as indeed it has been, with the exception of a few months, during the last five or six years.

But there is a still more convincing argument which may properly be used by the proponents of the McArthur plan, and this is that the membership of any representative body, fresh from the constituency, should be permitted to deal promptly with legislative affairs, thus formulating and making effective the expressed wishes of the people whose representatives they are. In present conditions, unless Congress is called to meet sooner, no opportunity is given for the carrying out of these declared wishes of the people until more than a year after the electors have recorded their desires at the polls. Members of the Senate and House chosen in November of the even numbered years do not, automatically, take their seats at the national capital until a year from the succeeding December. It will be insisted, no doubt, that the members chosen should be permitted to begin their work as soon as possible after their election, and it is difficult to see what sound arguments can be advanced against such a premise.—Christian Science Monitor.

COMMON SENSE ABOUT MEXICO

THE United States has been receiving some mighty fine tomatoes raised by Mexican peon labor before American tomatoes were ripe.

Mexican peon labor is largely employed in our country to make the beet sugar crops, to work in mines and smelters and ore crushers.

Over half a million Mexican laborers are employed on railroads and ranches, and in industries of our country and no harm is done.

We read a great deal about the Mexican peons being dispossessed of their homes through great grants of lands to Americans and others.

These grants have been developed by oil companies, mining and smelting companies, livestock and cotton and rubber plantations.

The Mexican peon has been given employment in his own country by American capital and who can honestly say any great harm was done?

Eastern newspapers keep sentimentalizing about the Mexican peon being made homeless by American corporations and exploited by capital.

If two blades of grass were made to grow for one, if steady work were given in place of none, if dollars were created out of dormant resources, who has been harmed?

If a people that prefer cock-fighting, bull fights, gambling and banditry to honest industry are gradually taught habits of industry and converted into wage earners, they are on the high road to becoming useful, self-supporting citizens.

That is the common sense of all the talk about exploiting Mexico with American capital.—San Bernardino Sun.

Central school entertainment by the school children last Thursday evening was quite a success; proceeds from the entertainment, the candy sale and refreshments, was something like $70, so the Victrola debt is more than cancelled. Red Cross History

W. H. Horst, chairman of the Cucamonga Chapter Red Cross, is in receipt of a letter from J. H. McKibbin, associate director of development, at Pacific Division headquarters at San Francisco, acknowledging with thanks the receipt of the completed history of the Cucamonga-Alta Loma chapter, American Red Cross, stating that although he had not yet had time to read and analyze it, he liked the "looks of it" and wished to compliment him and his history committee upon having gotten same up in very good shape.

The history was compiled and completed by the chapter secretary and forwarded last week, and makes a splendid showing and one that Cucamongans may well be proud of. A copy of same will appear soon in the Cucamonga Times. During the two year war record of the Cucamonga chapter, through the drives, roll calls, entertainments and donations, Cucamongans and Alta Lomas contributed $9,410.44, which is nearly $10,000, to the Red Cross work alone. In the production department, surgical dressings, 14,496; pads and pneumonia jackets, 894; bandages, 1068; ambulance pillows, 18; hospital garments, 620; knitted articles for soldiers, 398; refugee garments, 1000. Comfort kits and Christmas packets, 71. Knitted articles for refugees, 54. Linen shower, 173 articles. Old clothes for relief in Belgium and other countries, 1553 lbs. The history committee as appointed by Chairman W. H. Horst, consisted of Chas. B. Molsinger, Geo. T. Morris, Miss Gertrude Reid and Mrs. E. S. Bishop, secretary.

Beyond John Littoty, aged and well-known resident of Cucamonga, for many years in the tailoring business at his residence on San Bernardino road, passed over into the Great Beyond last Friday morning, at the age of 84 years. He is survived by his widow and four daughters, Miss Elizabeth Littoty, Mrs. E. L. Myers, of Orange, Mrs. C. F. Nourse, of San Francisco, and Mrs. A. L. Mayo, of Seattle; and four sons, Dr. H. C. of Spokane, Wash., John, of Boise, Idaho; Fred A., of Los Angeles, and G. B., of Tacoma, Wash. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Draper's chapel, with Rev. J. N. Gortner, of the Methodist church, officiating, assisted by Rev. E. M. Hutchens of the Nazarene church. Interment was in Orange on Monday.

Colton Concert Company Entertains Cucamonga school auditorium donated gala attire last Friday evening, its stage being banked high with beautiful flowers and greenery, in honor of the Colton Grammar School Concert company, composed of some twenty clever little performers, who staged one of the most entertaining little programs ever held in this community. The boys and girls, clad in nifty sailor costumes of white duck, and ranging in age from 12 to 16 years, were in charge of a very able instructress and leader, and presented a very amusing program, as follows:

Orchestra, six pieces. Overture, Encore, "Bluebird."
Girls' Quintette—"Soldier" Song and "Where Morning Glories Grow."
Boys' Quartet—"Life on the Ocean Wave" and "The House that Jack Built."

Chas. Perkins—Reading, "Trie, Billy and Joe," with encores, was "right there with the goods."
Solo—"Roses of Picardy," Little Miss Alice Martin, possessing an unusually sweet soprano voice.

Reading—"Razor Sellers," Arthur Byrd.

Song—"Goodbye, France," with orchestra accompaniment, Arthur Craigmiles.

Orchestra—"Till We Meet Again," Girls' Quintette—"Three Wonderful Letters from Home."

Reading—"Woodticks," and "Our Hired Girl," Harold Moore.

Solo—"Land of Dreams," Ernest Hurst.

Boys' Quartet—"I Hate to Get up in the Morning" and "Mr. Zit Zit," (A stuttering song, which brought down the house).

Reading—"Mother's Shopping Bag," Arthur Byrd.

Swedish Folk Dance—Four boys in costume.

Closing Number—Two songs by entire company, "Spanish Night" and "Anchor Song."

Every number was heartily applauded and met with generous encores. After the program, the high-spirited and talented ladies and gals were served with ice cream and cake by the P. T. A. Five local automobiles escorted the company over and back to Colton. Gate receipts were something over $28.00, which goes to the playground fund and to help furnishing the principal office.

Cucamonga Guests of Mrs. Schoneman

Cucamonga Woman's club was distinctly honored when they became the guests last Thursday afternoon of Mrs. Florence Dodson-Schoneman, retiring president of the County Federation, at her beautiful country home on "Banker Hill," San Bernardino-Colton road, a compliment due chiefly to the fact that Mrs. Mary J. Reid, president of the local club, is the county chairman of California History and Landmarks, and has been closely associated with Mrs. Schoneman as state chairman in this work, and the Cucamonga club women having therefore taken special interest in California history and landmarks. A very enjoyable and entertaining program had been arranged by the hostess. The great living rooms were simply a great treasure trove, where the visitors revelled in the many handsome curios, hand-carved furniture of Oriental design, the valuable heirlooms in embroideries and intricate lace patterns, old-time wedding and reception gowns of rich brocades, remarkably preserved. Spanish mantillas, various articles of a once magister's grandmother; all these wonderful things, many of them imported from France, Spain and the Orient, and relics of yesteryear Spanish days, had been brought forth from their dark and dustproof packing cases for the inspection of her guests. One Parisian opera wrap, of cut amethyst velvet, chenille fringed, with sparkling sequins of same shade, was of special interest to the visitors, as Mrs. Schoneman's mother had worn it in the city of New Mexico when Patti sang to a great throng of people. This handsome garment is often worn by Mrs. Schoneman herself and looks like new. Some framed medallions were of the 16th century and a great grandfather clock on the staircase claimed an age over 300 years, coming from Norway. The guests were then treated to a little musicale by Madame Zambrana de Ramirez, a talented grand opera singer, just five months in California, coming from Mexico City, who favored with a number of beautiful songs of old Mexico and Spain, to the delight of her audience. Directed to the dining rooms to inspect the first chafing dish brought to California, a huge affair in pewter and copper and heated by alcohol stoves, the club women were served with most delicious iced punch and cakes, served by Miss Georgia Sinclair and Mrs. Henry Goodell. Great bowls of pink and white sweet peas decorated the tables. A distinguished guest of the afternoon was Mrs. R. F. Garner, of San Bernardino, the newly-elected vice-president-at-large of the State Federated Clubs, who gave a short and interesting talk on "Federation," followed by a lively discussion of the recent convention affairs, by Mrs. Goodell, Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Schoneman. Mrs. Schoneman is a member of the famous early California Sepulveda family, her mother being Mrs. Rudeclada de Dodson. She has been appointed to serve on the committee which will within the next year write California's State History and War Record during the great world-war.

Woman's Club Notes—
Tuesday evening was a very happy evening at the Woman's club in the club center. The new president, Mrs. V. H. Wilson, presided for the first time, and the occasion was made memorable by the gift of a beautiful wrist watch to the outgoing president, Mrs. Norton, by the members.

in appreciation of her work during the past two years. A group of the old songs was sung in unison, following which Mrs. Wm. Tuttle gave a report of the district convention held at Coronado, to which she was a delegate, and Mrs. Wilson gave a report of the state convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs held at the same time and place. A brief report of the executive board meeting of the County F. W. C. at San Bernardino was given by Mrs. Norton. A piano solo by Miss Anderson was enjoyed and a reading by Mrs. Hawkinson, "Troop Trains Coming Home," was most enjoyable. Two new members were taken into the club. Following the program, the social hour was in charge of Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Tuttle, who served tea and cake. Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Pehl poured.

Stag Party—

A stag party in honor of his birthday was given by B. F. Campbell last Saturday evening by his wife at their home in San Antonio canyon. Table decorations were Cecile Brunner roses and lovely mountain flowers were used throughout the house. A delicious dinner was served by Mrs. Campbell, after which the host and guests were left to their own devices. The party breaking up about eleven. Covers were laid for Kirk Vernon, P. H. McQuillen, M. V. Mendenhall, Mr. Boyles and Lee Russell of Pomona.

Canteen Party—

The members of the teaching force of the Upland grammar school gave themselves a treat on Monday evening—a six o'clock dinner—following a strenuous afternoon covering canteens for the government. This work was inaugurated in the school several years ago, the work to be done by the pupils in sewing class, but the teachers usually had the winding up to do. So to make "the end of a perfect day," a dinner was planned. The dinner proved that teachers can cook as well as teach. Roast pork, apple sauce, baked potatoes, cold slaw, rolls, followed by a delicious fruit dessert and angel food and spiced cake and coffee. The large table was decorated with bouquets of sweet peas. Those of the teaching force present were Mrs. Troeller, Miss Griggs, Mrs. Sollender, Miss Harriet Riely, Miss Watson, Mrs. Williams, Miss Gladys Riley, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Stickney, Miss McClelland, Miss Carrey, Miss Williams, Miss Rugg, Miss Hanson, Miss Hart, Miss Brown, Miss Smith, Miss Randall and trustee, Mrs. Manker.

Bridge Tea—

Mrs. George Winter and her sister, Mrs. Herbert F. Bradburne, of Ontario, were joint hostesses last Thursday afternoon at a bridge tea given in honor of Mrs. J. M. Webster, who with her family will soon leave here to reside near Los Angeles. At the conclusion of the game, in which the honors fell to Mrs. Gordon D. Wimpess, a lovely corsage of Cecile Brunner roses was handed to Mrs. Webster. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mrs. J. M. Webster, Mrs. Charles V. Barr, Mrs. C. E. Grier, Mrs. Donald Hill, Mrs. W. P. Tucker, Mrs. Torrens Pratt, Mrs. C. H. Wimpess, Mrs. R. N. Leahy, Mrs. G. A. Hanson, Mrs. John Avery, Mrs. Roy. al Bumstead, Mrs. Robert R. Wisely, Mrs. J. H. Black and Mrs. Gordon Wimpess of Riverside.

Entertain Embroidery Club—

Gallardias were effectively used in decoration at a four-course luncheon last Thursday, when Mrs. R. B. Bordwell and Mrs. John Rarick entertained the members of the Embroidery club at the home of Mrs. Bordwell. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in fancy work and in welcoming the new club member, Mrs. Ernest C. Mehl. Those present besides the joint hostesses and Mrs. Mehl were Mrs. H. C. Kennedy, Mrs. R. C. Norton, Mrs. J. B. Goodrich, Mrs. J. P. Sawyer, Miss Sadie Sawyer and Mrs. N. G. Pehl.

Election of officers, convention reports from the California Library association meeting to be held at Del Monte June 10th to 13th will be among the things on the program. A possible book review and a discussion on "Most Appreciated Books" will add much to the enjoyment of the occasion. This was decided at a meeting of the executive board at Claremont Monday morning which Mrs. Manker attended. Others in attendance were Miss Harris from the Pomona library and Miss Ewing and Mr. Marriot from Pomona College library.

COLONIAL HAS BIG BILL FOR SATURDAY

"Treat 'Em Rough," a William Fox Victory Picture, taken from the famous novel, "The Two Gun Man," by Charles Alden Seltzer, will be the feature at the Colonial theatre for Saturday.

In "Treat 'Em Rough" Tom Mix, whose daring feats have won for him the title of "Fearless Tom," is said to have his greatest role, that of Ned Ferguson, the two-gun man. A cattle stampede in which Mix "bulldogs" a steer, is the big exciting scene. Over two thousand panic-stricken cattle are following their leader. The only way they can be stopped is to throw the leader. This the hero of the story does successfully for the first time in the history of pictures. It is an inspiring sight that will make you tingle with excitement. There is also a delightful romance.

Nearly all the scenes of this remarkable photodrama were taken at Prescott, Arizona.

A HOT SPOT Chalmers is a nimble creature of steel

AFTER you've had one ride in a Hot Spot Chalmers you'll wonder how it is possible to put so much "action," so much eagerness, so much desire-to-go in a ton-and-a-half of steel.

Take the engine out of the chassis and you have a car more or less like many others.

Put in the engine, and you have all the difference in the world.

For this great engine of the present Chalmers (medium sized though it be) has a way of making gas perform as no other engine ever has done.

The reason why is Hot Spot. Which "pulverizes" gas into a very "dry" state. This "dry" gas is then passed on to the cylinders via Ram's-horn and when those six spark plugs ignite the fuel there's action de luxe.

Hence you find a certain, indefinable nimbleness to a Chalmers that is tempting whether you're a front seat or a rear seat driver.

Don't be old-fashioned about a car. See the new day Chalmers.

RIM O' THE WORLD HILL CLIMBING RECORD MADE ON RED CROWN

When Charles Basle a few days ago drove his Peerless Eight over the famous Rim o' the World hill climbing course in record time he was using Red Crown gasoline. C. S. Stone, in his Essex, who was second, also had Red Crown in his tank.

Unquestionably this course, which covers eight miles of grade ranging from five to eighteen per cent thru the Waterman canyon near San Bernardino, is one of the severest tests motor fuel can have anywhere in the country. There is hardly a straight stretch of road in the whole distance and the innumerable sharp curves and twists, combined with the grade, present difficulties which can only be overcome by a car using the best quality of gasoline.

This Rim o' the World hill climbing contest is one of the few stock car events regularly held in California. That the two winning cars should both have used Red Crown is a tribute to the quality and steady power that it possesses in every day use.

The high quality of Red Crown was again demonstrated under the heavy strain of this hill climbing event. s a straight distilled, all refinery gasoline it has the full and complete chain of boiling points necessary for consistent performance. Low boiling points give easy starting, medium boiling points quick and smooth acceleration, and high boiling points give steady, dependable power and long mileage.

"U. S. TIRES ARE GOOD TIRES"

I was much pleased with the advertisement of automobile tires I saw the other day. I had been passing many enormous board-notices, gaudy in hue, striking in design, and each claiming superlative merit for their tires. "Buy Liveforever Tires! They last like steel!" "Use Rock-away Tires! No other rides so smoothly!" "You'll come to No Plus Ultra Tires! Don't Wait!" "The Bestofall Tire! Nothing like it!" So the shrieking advertisements vibrated through the landscape.

Then I saw the quiet announcement: "Smith tires are good tires." Just that. You can't imagine how restful it was. Immediately a sense of solid satisfaction came over me. "Good tires." No need to bluster and howl. No need to ransack the dictionary for superlatives. No need to run down competitors. "Smith tires are good tires." I wanted to buy some at once. Those are the tires for me henceforth. "Good tires." That is the acme of advertising. Ah, when will people learn the delicious value of quiet, self-respecting simplicity?—From Christian Endeavor or World.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING?

LOOK OUT!

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease. Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering, begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarclem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain. This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1695 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarclem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders. Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haarclem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

Your carelessness may cost a life

You carry fire insurance of course. If you burn out you'll get your insurance money.

But what do you lose? Far more than any policy can repay—valuables that can not be replaced—a human life, maybe. This agency has more than sound insurance to offer you. It has a service—a means of preventing fires, worked out by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. It costs you nothing. Let us explain it.

The county headquarters and registers will be open all day. Basket dinners at noon; hot coffee provided but bring cup, spoon and dinner. There will be an informal program opening about two o'clock. MAKE TRIP TO LAGUNA

The members of the Chaffey Union biology class, with Mr. W. W. Cushing as their guide, went on a most interesting expedition last Saturday to Laguna Beach, the object being to study sea anemones, starfish, and other wonders of the deep. They also experienced a new sensation on land, that of being pinched for speeding.

near Irvine, by the famous Judge Cox of Santa Ana. The fine was met most cheerfully by the party; they considered it added greatly to the day's enjoyment, and also to the fun in class the following Monday, as when the money was collected there was found to be more than Judge Cox had asked for, so, being loyal Chaffeyites, they ate the plus cash in the form of ice cream and cake. The remainder of Saturday was spent in swimming, luncheon, walks over the rocks, and a visit to Abalone Point. Numerous starfish, sea urchins and shells were collected for future biological references and the homeward trip was made with due consideration of the fact that the morning run had taken all the available funds of the class.

The guests were Margaret Knox, Olive Armstrong and Neva Allison, the rest of the party being Mr. W. W. Cushing, Rachel Ledig, Fay Price, Doris Cheel, Theresa Van Fleet, Charlotte Smith, Lena Leahy, Alice Walker, Geraldine Norton, Mary McGee, Eva Dixon, Florence Prange, Mary Bourke, Myrtle Bogart, Violet Caulkins, Richard Williams, Richard Fitzgerald, Sanford Ballou and William Cushing Jr.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Car can well be called the People's Car, because there are more than 3,000,000 of them in daily operation.

That is about seven to one to the nearest follower in the motor car industry.

This would not be so if the Ford Car had not for sixteen years proven its superiority in service, in durability, and low cost for operation and maintenance; this would not be so if the Ford Car was not so easy to understand, so simple in construction that everybody and anybody can safely drive it.

It is everybody's necessity because it doubles the value of time, and is the quick, convenient, comfortable, and economical method of transportation.
